

Transformation Update

Board of Trustees – June 16, 2022

Summary of Progress

- Announced leadership organizational structure for Vermont State University informed by the Transformation discovery and design work
- Most Student Experience and Academic Operations teams have completed design and are moving into development
- Administrative Operations teams have completed discovery and have moved onto business process review and design work as part of the design stage
- Workforce Development is completing discovery and will work with sponsors to clarify the vision and develop strategies for design
- Significant systems projects (Slate and Colleague) underway while others are being scoped and prioritized to support university launch and operations

Creating Vermont State University

- Dr. Grewal will assume the presidency on July 1, 2022
- Senior leadership positions have been announced and posted as part of the search process, including interim and transitional roles as needed
- Functional organizational structures will be based on strategic priorities and design input from teams as the work is completed
- Brand advertising for Vermont State University has been launched and initial response from prospective applicants has been good

Integrating Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Progress

- Chief Diversity Officer is a priority hire for Vermont State University leadership
- Three DEI pillars are being used to guide the work of transformation teams
- DEI Data Project at the center of system design and development work

Challenges

- Inconsistent use of pillars across teams during design (limited knowledge, capacity, and data)
- Need additional dedicated resources and capacity to drive DEI work across all teams

Three DEI Pillars

Data-Informed Decisions:

Are your work processes shaped by data-informed decisions related to diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice?

Professional Knowledge:

Can your work process reviews address an institutional need around diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice? Are you asking questions in a way that facilitates opportunities for discussion around a related issues of diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice?

Personal Knowledge:

Are you seeking opportunities to increase your own knowledge of diversity, equity, inclusion and social justice?

Update on Risks and Dependencies

- Received approval from NECHE on Substantive Change Request
- Faculty working intensively this summer and fall to finalize, review, and approve programs and curriculum – significant volume and capacity is stretched thin
- Staff capacity and technical expertise in key departments remains a significant concern
 - Continued attrition due in large part to uncertainty and change
 - Shift to new organization structure, new systems, and new processes will strain capacity
 - Gaps in specialized knowledge need to be filled through training and recruitment
 - Project management capacity stretched due to scope and number of technical projects

Core Team Updates

Student Experience

Accomplishments

- Successful brand launch and VTSU advertising campaigns (Look for us at events this summer!)
- VTSU Micro-website near completion

Key Priorities

- Prep for upcoming recruitment cycle and launch VTSU application
- Secure vermontstate.edu URL and begin new website project
- Finalize cost of attendance and scholarship awarding strategy

Risks & Dependencies

- Details on academic program curriculum and delivery modalities
- Vision and description of VTSU locations

Academic Operations

Accomplishments

- All Faculty Assemblies voted to approve a 5-school organizational model
- Face-to-Face Plus Pilot project launched this summer with 28 faculty participants

Key Priorities (summer 2021)

- Create single academic catalog and policies
- Align General Education requirements with optimized programs for Fall 2021 governance reviews
- Work on governance design by faculty leaders
- Complete design of comprehensive student success goals and integrated model for advising, career development, and student support

Risks & Dependencies

- Faculty and staff time and bandwidth for multiple time-sensitive academic projects
- Vision and description of VTSU locations

Administrative Operations

Accomplishments

- Completed discovery for all areas
- Reviewed business planning design principles with Finance & Facilities Committee
- Established new chart of accounts structure
- Completed business process reviews with Ferrilli
- Identified critical IT priorities

Key Priorities

- Design allocation methodologies for base appropriation, shared revenues, and shared expenses. Gain approval from Board of Trustees
- Design student workers processes
- Launch labor-management task force to review benefits structure
- Design and implement key IT initiatives

Risks & Dependencies

- Capacity to perform necessary work
- Competing priorities relative to day-to-day operations

Workforce Development

Accomplishments:

- Finalized definitions of workforce development and continuing education.
- Finalizing discovery, discovery gate presentation July 14
- Appointed an Executive Director
- Continued exploration of best practices as needed

Key Priorities

- The Workforce Division needs to be fully supported with VTSU systems: marketing/PR, finance, IT, student supports, registrar, administration, IR, HR, and systems
- The work of the Division must remain nimble and responsive to state, employer, and student needs
- Programs and the Division need to be financially viable
- Current good work needs to continue while we expand opportunities and offerings
- The Division support credit and non-credit offerings through the University and CCV.
- Workforce education needs must be continually assessed using existing resources as well as data we develop
- The Division will incorporate DEI principles and practices.

Risks & Dependencies

- Office of Sponsored Programs
- It and operating systems
- Contracts and contracting
- Academic Affairs

Systems Project Updates

Colleague

Accomplishments

- Over 40 Business Process Review (BPR) sessions (thanks to 90+ staff!), we completed documenting current business processes, understanding current roadblocks and bottlenecks, and identifying opportunities to streamline processes, improve the student experience, and better leverage the technology
- Validation of most critical BPRs finishing up
- Critical decisions/dependencies have been identified and are under review
- Collaborative conversations between key system/vendor partners to ensure process transition between systems

Key Priorities

- Reviewing key decisions and responding – people and process critical decisions to drive technology
- Developing more concrete and critical timeline and transitioning to the next phase of our Ferrilli engagement

Risks & Dependencies

- Inter-system dependencies
- Resources, competition with other system projects
- Time

Slate CRM*

Accomplishments

- Inquiry form live on landing page
- Initial testing phase of application happening now
- Agreements reached on application requirements

Key Priorities

- Communication roll-out
- Travel and Recruitment set-up
- Reporting

Risks & Dependencies

- Integration with Colleague
- We do not have all the answers yet
- Time is not on our side

DEI Data Project

Accomplishments

- Identified key data elements we collect, data elements we may be missing, conducted gap analysis
- Established bi-weekly meeting structure with key cross-team representatives
- Inventory of our value lists in our most key systems: Slate, Colleague, UKG
- A review of the value lists by key members of the DEISJ working group is underway
- Starting to map our name change process

Key Priorities

- Finalizing value list changes to ensure alignment with timing of our Slate/Colleague work (example: launch of application)
- Finalizing documenting processes for name change
- Developing guidelines for ethical use of DEI elements and education

Risks & Dependencies

- Ensuring alignment with other key dependency system projects

UKG – HR Information System

Accomplishments

- Completed BPRs with Ferrilli and HR/Payroll
- Report has been distributed; validation underway

Key Priorities

- Prioritizing design work and aligning resources to support system work needed

Risks & Dependencies

- Large scope of work/investment needed in UKG to make adjustments – both in terms of staff time, but also will require project management/vendor support
- Working through historical and current integration challenges, current support

Other Important Systems Projects

| Project | Status | Target Date |
|-------------------------------|--|-------------|
| Forms | In progress | 8/15/22 |
| Catalog/Curriculum Management | Product selected, not started | 10/1/22 |

Aligning Teams with New Structure

New Team Structure

- New core team structure aligns with new university leadership structure
 - New Student Experience
 - Student Success
 - Academic Programs & Administration
- Sub-Teams realigned to match new core team scopes
- Project Teams for Workforce Development will emerge from Design

Shifting Transformation Focus – Year 2

- Administrative Operations and Workforce Development will be key priorities for design and development during this next phase of transformation
- Business process reviews from Colleague project will help inform opportunities for administrative consolidation and efficiency
 - Being intentional about which processes and accountabilities should be at institutions and which should be shared services
 - Improving integrations and handoffs between systems and departments to reduce manual work, errors, and re-work
- Priorities for Workforce Development will come from Discovery and Design
