

2023-2025 History Curriculum Crosswalk

	SLO 1 Demonstrate advanced knowledge of a variety of historical events, ideas and individuals that have shaped the world through time.	SLO2 Demonstrate the ability to read scholarly literature effectively and apply the knowledge gained thereby to an understanding of economic, political, social, cultural, and religious historical forces	SLO3 Demonstrate the ability to critically analyze, interpret, and synthesize primary historical materials effectively, identifying purpose and point of view.	SLO4 Demonstrate an understanding of major historiographical ideas and interpretations, and the ability to apply those ideas to both secondary literature and the student's own research.	SLO5 Propose, research, write, and present a substantial research paper that uses authentic and properly cited historical research to develop an original and historically significant thesis.
1000-level Core Courses
HIS 1125	X Intro	X Intro	X Intro
HIS 1135	X Intro	X Intro	X Intro
HIS 1215	X Intro	X Intro	X Intro
HIS 1225	X Intro	X Intro	X Intro
Electives
2XXX	X applied	X applied	X applied		X Intro and applied

3XXX (3 required courses)	X applied & mastery	X applied & mastery	X applied & mastery	X intro & applied	X Applied
Capstone
HIS 4601		Applied & mastery	Applied & mastery	Applied & mastery	Applied: Proposal
HIS 4602		mastery	mastery	mastery	Mastery: Thesis