OPTION E1: PART A. INVENTORY OF EDUCATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS INDICATORS (FOR NON-EXTERNALLY-ACCREDITED PROGRAMS)

(1) Where are the learning outcomes for this level/program published? (please specify) Include URLs where appropriate.	(2) Other than GPA, what data/ evidence is used to determine that graduates have achieved the stated outcomes for the degree?	(3) Who interprets the evidence? What is the process?	5) Date of the most recent review. (this will almost always match the date of the newest PReCIP report)
They are published online in the VTSU undergraduate catalog. Faculty also include them in syllabi or on Canvas.	Our history capstone sequence of courses; faculty evaluation of thesis presentations; exit survey for seniors. We also use the indirect evidence of acceptance into graduate programs and entry into careers from education to Human Resources. Evidence is provided by the participation of our majors in conferences and the publication of history theses in different conference settings. The Academic Excellence Student Conference, instituted in Spring 2024, was spearheaded and coordinated by history faculty. This conference is one of the few ways in which majors from different campuses can share their work with each other.	All history faculty review and interpret the evidence annually, following the completion of the Spring semester.	May 31, 2025 is the date of the current PreCIP report. The previous reports for the heritage institutions (NVY Johnson and CU) were submitted in 2019.
